EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Randall K. McCarthy on 5/30/06, whereby:

Claims 1 and 10 are amended; and Claims 2-9 and 11-16 remain as original.

3. The application has been amended as follows:

1. (amended) In a device comprising a programmable processor with an associated physical memory space which stores native functions in a format determined by a hardware architecture of the processor, the improvement comprising a virtual machine concurrently emulated by the processor which executes virtual functions in a standardized format determined irrespective of the hardware architecture of the processor, wherein the execution of a selected virtual function by the virtual machine causes the processor to execute a corresponding native function, and wherein the corresponding native function is executed to evaluate concurrent execution of at least one other native function to enable virtual execution of diagnostic firmware within a disc drive data storage apparatus.

2-9. (as original)

10. (amended) A method for concurrently emulating a virtual machine in a physical memory space of a programmable processor, the memory space storing native functions in a format determined by a hardware architecture of the processor, the method comprising:

providing a set of virtual functions each in a standardized format determined irrespective of the hardware architecture of the processor, and using the virtual machine to execute a selected virtual function which causes the processor to execute a corresponding native function, wherein the corresponding native function evaluates concurrent execution of at least one other native function to enable virtual execution of diagnostic firmware within a disc drive data storage apparatus.

11-16. (as original)
